CLOSING SCENES OF THE WAR.

A Confederate Band Which Deserted in a Body to Washington.

In the latter part of the month of March, 1865, Washington saw many signs of collapse of the rebellion. The Confederate army appeared to be badly demoralized, and deserters, who arrived constantly in large numbers, reported that men from Alabama, Georgia, Florida and the Carolinas could not be expected to have any heart in a fight which seemed only for the defense of Virginia, while their own states were overrun by the armies of the Union.

During the month of March more than 3,000 deserters were received at Washington, and great numbers were quartered at Fort Monroe, Annapolis and other points nearer the lines, where they were put to work in the quartermaster's department or in the naval service.

One curiosity of the times was a Confederate regimental band which had deserted in a body with its instruments and was allowed to march through the streets of the national capital playing Union airs. This was one of the oddest signs of the final break up. People recalled a story, told by Hooker, that when the Union army scaled and occupied Lookout Mountain a rebel sentry on duty on the crest of one of the most difficult precipices saw our men pile up in solid masses over steep rocks which had been thought inaccessible and was so surprised that he forgot to run, but stood with feet rooted to the spot, watching the Union force climbing up, and streaming past him, and driving the enemy far to the rear, until he was left alone, a statue of amazement. Recovering himself at last, he threw down his musket, stripped off his rebel gray jacket, stood on them both, and looking far off to the sunny south stretched out as a map below him, said, "How are you, Southern Confederacy?"

But notwithstanding such indications of a collapse of the rebellion at this very time many northern Union newspapers, led by Horace Greeley and others of his stamp, were demanding that appeals should be made to the southern people "to stop the flow of blood and the waste of treasure," and that some message should be sent to the southerners "so terse that it will surely be circulated and so lucid that it cannot be misconstrued or perverted," by way of an invitation to cease fighting. Curiously enough, the nearer the time came for a final surrender the more fervid was the demand for negotiation and appeal from the unreasoning radicals in the ranks of northern Unionists. But all this was soon to end, and while a small party was asking, "Why not negotiate?" the downfall came—Noah Brooks in Century.

Food Tin Cans.
 In a recent government report by Dr. H. W. Wiley it is stated that in Germany the law requires that the tins employed for holding canned goods shall not contain more than 1 per cent of lead, while in this country there is no restriction whatever in regard to the character of the tin used, the result of this latter fact being the employment of cans in some cases containing as high as 12 per cent of lead. This practice prevails, notwithstanding the unanimity among physicians as to the effect of lead salts upon the human system, the continual ingestion of even minute quantities of lead into the system being followed eventually by the most serious consequences—painter's colic, lead palsy and other trying diseases well known to physicians being the direct effects of continual exposure of the system to any such minute portions of lead salts. It is said to be possible to exclude the latter by requiring that the tin shall not contain more than, say, 1 1/2 per cent of lead; also that the solder be as free from lead as possible.

In Germany the solder made use of in sealing the cans is not allowed to contain over 10 per cent of lead, while in this country the analysis of numerous samples of the solder applied shows that it contains fully 50 per cent of lead, in addition to this being the lack of care to prevent such solder from coming into contact with the contents of the can, and large surfaces of solder on the seams are often found exposed to the action of the acid contents of the can.

Tourists' Gold in Italy.
 At the British embassy to the king of Italy a calculation was made some time ago of the amount of gold brought by travelers into Italy every year. By far the largest number of these travelers come from England and the United States. The calculations made it evident that no less than $20,000,000, or $100,000,000, are brought into this country and left here by these travelers. In the scantiest years that sum has not been less than $14,000,000, while on other occasions it has risen to $22,000,000. Mr. Stamer, a writer on Italy, relates that an old woman in Sorrento once told him that the people in England had no sun, because the English had told her time and again that it was not for society they had come to Italy, but to see the sun. Besides all the English were fair and ruddy. If they had had a sun, why were they not all sunburnt? If they do get sunshine in Italy, as they do, they pay very sweetly for it.—Rome Letter in Baltimore Sun.

ERIE MEDICAL CO., Buffalo, N.Y.

BANKRUPTCY

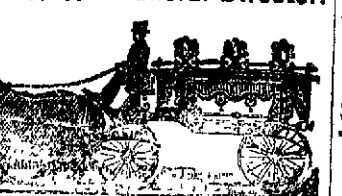

—of the physical being is the result of drawing incessantly upon the reserve capital of nerve force. The wear and strain of modern life are concentrated upon the nervous system. The young men of our day become sufferers from nervous debility or exhaustion, nervous prostration or weakness. This may be the result of too much mental worry and excitement, or the result of bad practices and excesses, or pernicious habits, contracted in youth, through ignorance. They feel irritable, weak and nervous with such distressing symptoms as backache, dizziness, shooting pains in head or chest, men, as well, suffer from exhaustion, loss of many powers, low spirits, impaired memory, and many derangements of mind and body. The ill-used brain is morbidly wide awake when the overworked business man attempts to find rest in bed.

The physicians and specialists of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute devote their best energies to reclaiming and restoring such unfortunate to health and happiness. They have written a book, pages, treating of these maladies and setting forth a rational means of home-treatment for their cure. It is sent securely sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of 10 cents for postage.

MEATS OF ALL KIND

DEFINING THE ISSUE. The Democrats in the Mississippi Valley and Southern States have taken the initiative in determining the financial policy of the party. Convention have been called in several States for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the party shall declare for the free coinage of silver. The President, Secretary Carlisle and several "cuckoo" Senators and Representatives have expressed themselves as being unequivocally in favor of the single gold standard, while a number of other Congressmen and several conventions have emphatically declared for free silver. As the financial question is the dominant issue in politics and the Administration Democrats are for gold only, while the masses of the party in the South and West are for gold and silver, it is very evident that the party will divide on the issue and that either the gold men or the silver men will bolt the national convention as the goldbugs will not support a silver candidate and the silver men will not support a goldbug for President. While the division on the money question is more apparent at the present time in the Democratic than in the Republican camp it must not be inferred that Sherman, Morton, Reed & Co. can prevent dissensions among the Republicans. Senator Teller of Colorado, an acknowledged Republican leader, publicly proclaims that he has cast his last vote for a Presidential candidate who is not unequivocally for free coinage on a free coinage platform. Congressman John P. Shafroth of Colorado, a Republican, says he is going to leave the party if it does not declare for free coinage and vote for the candidate, no matter what party nominates him, who will support and carry out free coinage principles. "Thomas H. Carter of Montana, Chairman of this Republican National Committee, is for Senator Cameron for the Presidency because he is a protectionist and in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. He says the silver question is as wide as commerce, is absolutely irrepressible, and the party seeking to ignore it commits itself of unpardonable stupidity. There are only a few of the many prominent Republicans who will not support a goldbug Republican for President, so that the probability of a bolt in the Republican National Convention is almost as certain as in the Democratic Convention. There is no use in attempting to disguise the fact that both the old parties fear that they will go to pieces on the silver question. It overshadows in importance every and all other issues. There must be more money to meet the requirements of trade and commerce and opening the mints to silver will be followed immediately by the issuance of at least $100,000,000 in Government non-interest bearing notes to relieve the stringency. The people will not tolerate double-acting platforms and Janus-faced candidates in 1896. They want money made and issued instead of interest-bearing bonds, which do not add a dollar to the circulating medium, and as the people desire prosperity more than the success of Republicanism or Democracy they will support the candidate that is on the silver side of the financial issue, regardless of the party that nominates him. The line between the single standard men and the free coinage men is getting to be more clearly defined than ever before and it cannot be obliterated by the politicians in the next campaign.

THE GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND HENRY. There are a few newspapers in Nevada which distort facts in a vain endeavor to make it appear that the present management of the Carson mint and the United States Marshal do not want Henry captured. Marshal Humphrey, in a plain statement shows the falsity of the assertions published by those papers. There is no known reason why any person, who desires to have the thieves who plundered the Carson mint while in the employ of the Government brought to trial and punished, should object to having Henry placed on the stand and given opportunity to tell what he knows about the Mint robbery. Why should the Government officials, who have evidence that Henry disposed of about $23,000 in gold while employed at the mint, desire to keep him from declaring in court who his confederates were? He could not have taken the bullion without the knowledge of his fellow employees. Others must have known that it was stolen and who knows but what Henry was acting under the orders of his superiors in the mint when he brought the bullion to Reno and had it assayed and sold? Henry disposed of the bullion before the present mint officials were appointed. He was discharged before they took office, consequently anything he may have to say cannot affect them, and to insinuate that the United States Marshal does not want Henry arrested and brought to Carson, merely implies that he desires to shield the mint crooks from the consequences of their guilt.

STEPS are being taken to call a Silver State Convention in Missouri. The movement originated in Laclede county, the home of Congressman Bland. The Administration Democrats and Republicans will probably combine to defeat the Silver men in Missouri as they have in Kentucky.

CARD FROM U. S. MARSHAL. Why he Declined the Proposition of Henry's Attorney. Editor Appeal:—Although averse to newspaper explanations in the conducting of official business, I will for once depart from a rule and briefly reply to some statements in the Carson Tribune, which were copied in last Evening's Gazette. I have never solicited the aid of any attorney, excepting those representing the United States Government in securing the arrest of James Henry. I have made and am still making a diligent search for the man, whose arrest, I am confident, is only a matter of time. There has been no proposition made to me by his attorney for his surrender which I could honorably consider or accept. Mr. Woodburn wanted me to appoint him a deputy marshal and as such see his client, and if he did not produce him the Government was to be subjected to no expense in the matter. The idea of officially employing the attorney of a fugitive charged with a serious crime to interview his client with no assurance of his production apart from the rules and regulations of the department to which I am attached, was too absurd and preposterous to merit serious consideration. I did offer, however, to appoint Mr. Woodburn a deputy, permit him to accompany me without cost to himself, allow him to consult with his client as to his heart's content and guarantee that the man should not be interrupted or molested on his way to Carson, with the assurance that he should have ample time and opportunity to procure bail upon his arrival there. According to Mr. Woodburn's statement to me, and as he has declared through the public press, the only obstacle was the fear that Henry would be "paraded as a criminal" and subjected to imprisonment with no opportunity to procure bail, etc. That being the case, I thought and still think that my offer covered all of the objections of his client. I do not believe that I was ever charged with mistreating a prisoner, and if Henry is ever in my official charge he will be treated as others have been. There will be no "parade" made of him, and he will be allowed all privileges consistent with his safe keeping and the requirements of the law. I do not know, however, any reason because he is charged with stealing a large instead of a small amount from the Government, why he should receive unusual consideration or his arrest made a matter of punctilious diplomacy instead of a simple process of law. I am satisfied that there has been no sincerity in these professions of willingness to produce Henry. The propositions to me have been farcical and childish, and such as those who made them must have known I could not accept without making myself ridiculous in the eyes of the authorities of my department and all sensible persons. My only reason for making this newspaper explanation is my belief that no voluntary surrender of Henry has been intended by those who have been parading the matter for the past few weeks in the public press, and so in justice to myself and my associates I concluded reluctantly to make this statement of the facts. I neither ask nor expect any assistance from the attorneys of the man who is so anxious to surrender, but who is so industriously concealing himself; but I am, however, always ready and willing to avail myself of all honorable means of furthering the ends of justice in the line of my official duty. GEO. W. HUMPHREY, United States Marshal. Reno, May 30, 1895.

HONEST MONEY. The Hercules of the Free Silverites Exposed by a new Champion of the Plotters. Editor Journal:—The May edition of Honest Money is at hand. Stanley Waterloo, through its columns, attempts to make its readers believe that "Coin's Financial School" is a curiosity and says "it is composed of had grammar, half facts and utter falsities." Mr. Waterloo uses the same logic that is used by Sherman, Rothschilds, Cleveland and Carlisle, and claims that the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 will overwhelm the wage-earner and farmer with dire disaster and create the greatest panic the world has ever known. Mr. Waterloo in his great wisdom, points out the immense advantage that the banks would derive from the free coinage of silver by paying their deposits in fifty cent dollars. On page 119 of this "honest money," book is a map showing an immense deposit of silver. Judging by the map this deposit of silver must be at least sixty miles in width and ten thousand miles in length. Mr. Waterloo kindly illustrates his argument for honest money, so that the illiterate wage-earners and farmers can see at a glance how "the free coinage of silver will overwhelm them and precipitate the worst panic the world has ever known." It is expected that this picture of some six hundred thousand square miles of silver of unknown depth, will so paralyze the advocates of free coinage with the immensity of their undertaking that they will abandon the cause. Mr. Editor, it is hardly possible that Mr. Waterloo would knowingly attempt to stretch the truth or tell a glaring falsehood, for in the front part of his book, on pure white paper, with nothing else printed on the page, is the beautiful motto "Honesty is the best policy." FARMER. Reno, June 3, 1895.

W. H. Grannis of Lovelock arrived yesterday afternoon and left last night for Colusa, Cal., to spend the summer.

Board of Commissioners. The following business was transacted by the Board of County Commissioners at their meeting yesterday: The rules of the Hospital were submitted to the Board and accepted. It was ordered that the physician give a bond in the sum of $1,000. The road running west from Montz's corner along the railroad track in the town of Verdi to be opened in the place of the old road was declared by the Board to be the county road. The vote allowing the bill of the Herring, Hall & Marvin Co. for jail material amounting to $3,125 was unanimous. Commissioner Hymers offered the following resolution: The Clerk was ordered to notify the Commissioners of Eureka county that Chas. Bradbury, a citizen of that county, is here and in destitute circumstances. WHEREAS, The majority of this Board has offered to divide the county printing between the two county papers published at Reno, the county seat, to wit: the Reno Evening Gazette and the NEVADA STATE JOURNAL, by awarding the said printing to the said papers by alternate quarters, and WHEREAS, The proprietors of the NEVADA STATE JOURNAL have refused such or any division of the said printing, therefore it is hereby ordered that the county printing of Washoe county, Nevada, be and is hereby awarded to the Reno Evening Gazette until otherwise ordered by the Board. Commissioner Hymers and Cobb voted aye, and Alt no. As the majority of the Board of Commissioners never made such an offer as the above to the proprietors of the JOURNAL it is, to say the least, remarkable that men claiming to be honorable should officially proclaim themselves otherwise.

Viavi. A physician of Reno says he would have more faith in Viavi, if we did not claim so much for it. Doctor, how can we help it, if it makes the cure for instance? Its use in Mr. Hunter's case is entirely out of its legitimate line, yet note the result. He was suffering intense pain, the physician expected his medicine to control it, in from two to three days. He used it three weeks and the pain was still as great. He was kept under opiates, to which I objected as I believe in curing pain instead of stupefying the body. The doctor said it was not probable he would ever get out again, and we must make him as comfortable as possible. I was not satisfied, I paid the doctor and sent for another. He assured me all had been done that could be, that he would have prescribed about the same. I discarded all medicine and used Viavi. In one night, with nothing but hot and cold water and Viavi Cerate, I gained control of the pain, and in two or three days not a vestige was left, and in two weeks he was on the street. There are other cases here just as wonderful. I will be glad to explain its use to all who call. Mas B. E. HUNTER. W. G. C. Pitt, Manager of The Voice of Labor, San Francisco, says: "I have used Park's Tea in my family for some time. It has no equal for liver trouble or biliousness." Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson.

MRS. HARTLEY'S CASE.

Application for Pardon Denied—Inter-est in Proceedings—Will She Get a Rehearing of Her Case or Go to State Prison With Her Baby Boy?

(Correspondence of the Journal.)

Carson City, Nev., June 3, 1895.

The case of Alice M. Hartley, charged with the murder of M. D. Foley, came up before the State Board of Pardoners at 10 A. M. to-day. Quite a number of prominent people from Reno were present, and Mrs. Hartley and her baby boy were accompanied by Mrs. M. T. Maynard and Mrs. D. B. Boyd of Reno. Clarke and Dodge appeared as attorneys for Mrs. Hartley, who sat composedly, and attentively listening throughout, occasionally interrupted by the troublous wailings or infantile festivities of her little one.

General Clarke opened the proposition by reading several petitions for the remission of the sentence of Mrs. Hartley to eleven years in the State Prison on the grounds that she had not been given a fair and competent trial in the District Court, was not guilty as charged and at any rate had suffered sufficient punishment already. He also read a petition from Spokane, Washington, to the same effect, numerous signed by former residents of Boreka and a petition from citizens of Carson.

Dr. Patterson of Reno addressed the Board relative to the physical and moral condition of Mrs. Hartley at the time the deed was committed, and the circumstances connected therewith as brought out by the trial of the case. He hoped Foley had found pardon in the other world for his sins committed in this, and expressed the belief that Foley would, if he could, join in the petition for the pardon. Foley would most certainly not desire his only begotten son to be a convict in the State Prison with his mother, and he would not vindictively prosecute her for vengeance in the crime in which he was chief participant.

H. H. Beck of Reno made a brief but very eloquent and concise plea in defense of the defendant. He was satisfied there was no truth in the many outside accusations that had been made against her. She had suffered sufficiently; the day of retribution is past and the innocent little son should not be made to suffer for the sin of his father. If the Board should decide to free the mother and son from any further punishment or disgrace the entire community would say amen.

Mrs. Maynard made one of her most eloquent efforts and was earnestly listened to. The whole good of the community should have precedence in the minds of the Board beyond the mere desire for legal vengeance. The defendant had not had a fair deal and even her own evidence was of an irresponsible nature, induced by her maternal nature.

General Clarke briefly reviewed the evidence adduced at the trial and the case was submitted to the Board at 2:30 P. M.

About half an hour later the Board decided to deny the application for pardon, Governor Jones, District Attorney Beatty and Supreme Judges Bigelow and Belknap voting against and Supreme Judge Bonnellfield in favor of pardon.

A Carson Bicyclist's Sunday Trip.
Joe Muller, a Carson bicyclist, registered at the Riverside Hotel Sunday morning at 7:50 o'clock, having left Carson on his wheel at 5 A. M. Mr. Muller made a bet that he could leave Carson at 5 o'clock in the morning, go to Reno, register at the Riverside Hotel, thence to Virginia and return to the Capital by 4 o'clock in the afternoon. After eating his breakfast here and resting for an hour, Mr. Muller started for the Comstock, where he arrived at ten minutes past 12. He left Virginia at 1:10 P. M. and arrived at Carson at 2:50 P. M., having seventy minutes to spare. During his trip he punctured the tire of his bicycle four times.

Charles Lewers informs the JOURNAL that the late frost did not do much damage to the fruit in Washoe Valley. The apple crop in the upper end of the valley will be, judging from present indications, larger than any previous one. Plums, cherries, peaches, etc., were injured somewhat, but enough remain to make a good yield. Everything is much further on now than at this time last year.

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

A Sharp Pick Driven into a Man's Brain.

The Silver State says Thomas E. Evans was fatally injured while at work on the railroad at Winnemucca last Saturday. Mr. Evans and others were moving some old ties from the track. One of the men, named Gus Wright, was picking the earth away from a tie and accidentally struck Mr. Evans in the back of the head. Dr. Hanson and Haggar, examined the wound and found that the skull had been fractured and the pick point had entered the brain, causing a fatal injury. Mr. Evans being a devout Catholic, Father Kiely was telegraphed for to administer the rites of the church to the unfortunate man. Mr. Evans was a first class boot and shoemaker by trade, but was forced by the dull times to go to work on the railroad. He was partially conscious at last accounts but not expected to live.

Seriously Injured.

Thos. Pixley of Verdi met with a serious accident: a few days ago and was brought to Reno on Sunday night for treatment. He was carrying a large circular saw and stumbled and in falling he struck his knee against one of the teeth, cutting a terrible gash. Inflammation has set in and it is now feared that his knee joint will be stiffened and there is danger of the loss of the limb.
